

QUINCY COLLEGE

2016-2017
Supplemental Nutrition
Assistance Program (SNAP)
Verification

Your 2016-2017 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before awarding Federal Student Aid, we may ask you to confirm the information you and your parents reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information, Quincy College will compare your FAFSA with the information on this worksheet and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You and at least one parent must complete and sign this worksheet, attach any required documents, and submit the form and other required documents to the financial aid office. If you have questions about verification, contact the Financial Aid office as soon as possible so that your financial aid will not be delayed. We cannot continue to process your financial aid until verification has been completed, so please provide the required documents as soon as possible.

Student Name: _____ Quincy College ID #: _____

Date of Birth: _____ Parent Name (required for Dependent Student only): _____

You answered "Yes" to FAFSA question #75 (Dependent Student) or #96 (Independent Student) "In 2014 and/or 2015, did you (or your spouse), or your parents or anyone in your parents' household receive food stamp benefits?" In order to complete verification of your FAFSA the student (and parent if dependent student) must certify that a member of the student's household, received benefits from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program or SNAP (formerly known as the Food Stamp Program) sometime during 2014 or 2015. SNAP may be known by another name in some states. For assistance in determining the name used in a state, please call 1-800-4FED-AID (1-800-433-3243).

The household includes:

Dependent Student:

- The student
- The parents (including stepparent) even if the student does not live with the parents.
- The parents' other children if the parent will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2017, or if the other children would be required to provide parental information if they were completing a FAFSA for 2015-2016. Include children who meet either of these standards even if the children do not live with the parents.
- Other people if they now live with the parents and the parents provide more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2017.

Independent Student:

- The student
- The student's spouse, if the student is married.
- The student's or spouse's children if the student or spouse will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2017, even if the children do not live with the student.
- Other people if they now live with the student and the student or spouse provides more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2017.

Note: If we have reason to believe that the information regarding the receipt of SNAP benefits is inaccurate, we may require documentation from the agency that issued the SNAP benefits in 2014 or 2015.
