2018-2019
Source of Income

The income that you reported for you and/or your parent(s) on the 2018-2019 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) appears to be insufficient to have supported your household. To gather a better understanding of your family's financial situation, please itemize your family's source of income below. We are requesting that you revise the parent income figure you reported or provide an explanation as to how your family was able to meet your expenses on the resources you reported. This information must be supplied before we can continue to process your financial aid award.
