Quincy Retirement Board Defined Benefit Pension Plan

www.quincyretirement.com
www.mass.gov/perac

Quincy Retirement Board serves as the governing body for retirement benefits distributed among city retirees.

Upon enrolling, the employee must choose a beneficiary. On the Beneficiary Selection Form, member chooses a beneficiary to receive:

- Option C: Beneficiary receives an allowance or payment of accumulated deductions and other payments dues; one or more beneficiaries allowed; any person or entity may be a beneficiary.
- Option D: Only one beneficiary is chosen to receive the monthly pension that would have been due to you upon retirement.

Beneficiary Option may not be changed once selected, however Beneficiary designation may change at any time.

The city of Quincy Retirement Board issues an annual employee statement of account. Rollover and refund options are available. Upon employment separation and retirement system separation, employees may request a refund*.

Once enrolled membership status is maintained until time of separation from employment and separation from membership for a period of 2 or more weeks*

COST

The amount varies and is dependent upon date of enrollment and salary. Enrollees after July 1, 1996 contribute 9% of compensation. Members pay an additional 2% for compensation above $30,000. No contributions are required for overtime pay.

ELIGIBILITY

All Regular employees working 24-hours per week more must become a member.

*Refund eligibility: must leave employment and not re-employ with another municipal or state agency, and must be under the age of 55 unless the employee has less than 10 years of creditable service. Refund is 100% of employee contribution upon withdrawal from the system; interest received in the refund is determined by years of creditable service at the time of withdrawal.

TUITION REMISSION & PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Quincy College values and invests in continued learning for employees, offering tuition remission and professional development opportunities.

Please refer to current contracts and Professional Development Guidelines available in the Office of Human Resources for details regarding this benefit. You may also visit the QC Human Resources webpage for details.

TUITION REMISSION:

- Quincy College offers the benefit of tuition remission to eligible employees of Quincy College and their immediate family members. Immediate family members are defined as spouse and children. Please refer to the College policy for eligibility guidelines.
- With the exception of Computer classes, remissions are granted by the President or President's designee once enrollment in a class exceeds eight. For computer and non-credit courses, the remission is 50% of the tuition.
- Tuition remission is not available for Allied Health programs, online Gatlin courses and science lab courses.
- Requests for remission for four or more courses must accompany a request for financial aid (FAFSA must be filled out) and EFC on the approval form. Requests for remission for a computer course is only approved, if the number of students are eight, without reaching capacity, by the first day of the class.
- A minimum GPA of 2.0 must be maintained to qualify for this remission in next semester.
- If a student withdraws from a class, he/she must pay 50% tuition for dropped courses in order to be eligible for remission during next semester. In the absence of special circumstances, no more than 2 students, with tuition remission, may be allowed in each section. In case there are more requests, the date of request will determine the priority.
- The request for tuition remission must be made on specific forms available in The Office of Human Resources. If a student chooses, he/she may register earlier to get a spot by paying full fee and then applying for refund.
 - Additional conditions are outlined in the College policy and awards are at the President's discretion and contingent upon fund availability as well as meeting the criteria as outlined in the College policy.

Please contact the Office of Human Resources for further details.

ADDITIONAL BENEFITS

Barnes & Noble at Quincy College

Faculty and staff will receive a benefit of a 10% discount on general reading books, emblematic merchandise such as clothing and gift items, and most school supplies. Employees may also order general books through the bookstore and the discount will generally apply to the order under the same terms. The discount cannot be combined with any other promotions (the higher discount will always apply) and does not apply to electronics or textbooks. Employees may obtain discounts on purchases by showing a Quincy College ID when checking out.

Direct Deposit

All employees are eligible and encouraged to enroll in direct deposit upon hire. The Office of Human Resources will complete the initial enrollment upon hire, then employees may update direct deposit details at any time via ADP employee self-service.

- Upon employee authorization, it may take up to 1-2 pay periods to initiate electronic direct deposit. The first check is usually a paper check mailed to your home.
- Employees have access to view paystubs in ADP self-service, and can elect to go paperless.
- The 1-2 pay period processing timeframe applies to any account changes or terminations after the initial enrollment in the Direct Deposit Program. Please inform the Office of Human Resources/Payroll, as these changes will trigger a paper check during the verification process.
- If you choose to deposit all or a portion of your pay check to the Quincy Municipal Credit Union, you must go to the Credit Union and generate your payroll authorization form from there.

Quincy Municipal Credit Union

As a department of the city of Quincy, all employees can receive a wide range of services, including: Share Savings and Club Accounts, direct payment options through payroll deductions and direct deposit. Eligible college employees may participate in the payroll Direct Deposit Program through the Quincy Credit Union. To initiate this direct deposit activity, please contact the Credit Union directly to obtain forms. Upon completion of appropriate Quincy Credit Union form please input applicable account and routing numbers in the Direct Deposit section if ADP employee self-service.

Club Accounts include Christmas and Vacation Club Accounts
