

PROGRAM OF EVENTS

CAREER AWARENESS WEEK

QUINCY CAMPUS /// MARCH 27 - MARCH 30

PLYMOUTH CAMPUS /// APRIL 3 - APRIL 6

THE OFFICE OF CAREER SERVICES

QUINCY COLLEGE
PLYMOUTH, QUINCY & ONLINE

THE COLLEGE OF THE SOUTH SHORE™

MONDAY – March 27, 2017

Time: 9:25 am – 10: 55 am	Topic: Developing Your Brand Workshop	Location: 418
3/27/17	Speaker: Ahfeeyah Thomas, Motivational Speaker, Success Coach, CEO of Lady Corporate
Description: With all of the focus on social media and how it can negatively impact your job search, it is important to understand how to use available tools to your advantage. This workshop will help you stand apart in the competitive job market. Learn how to positively brand yourself in order to enhance your appeal in the job market. This exciting workshop will assist you in using tools like portfolios, social media, and networking to develop your own professional brand as you search for employment.

Time: 2:00 pm – 3:00 pm	Topic: Career Success Tips for International Students	Location: PP 418
3/27/17	Speaker: Karen Salhaney Smizer, Director of Career Services, Quincy College
Description: This is a customized small group workshop for international students in starting your job search. By the end of this workshop, you will learn how to research organizations at a career fair, understand proper dress and feel more confident when introducing yourself to others. Space is limited and registration is required with the Career Center – Room 513

Time: 6:00 pm – 7:30 pm	Topic: Launching a successful job search	Location: PP 323
3/27/17	Speaker: Debbie Raymond, Business Development/ Job Coach, One Life at a Time, Inc.
Description: This workshop covers how to project manage your job search, how to target jobs and companies, and key steps in applying to and interviewing for positions to find the best possible role for you. Specific focus will highlight how midlife career changers can effectively network and build confidence.

TUESDAY – March 28, 2017

Time: 9:00 am – 10:00 am	Topic: Choosing or Changing Your Major Workshop	Location: PP 501
3/28/17	Speaker: Karen Salhaney Smizer, Director of Career Services, Quincy College
Description: Did you know that 1/3 of college students enter college undeclared, and about 70% of students change majors at least once? Are you currently undeclared or questioning your major? This workshop will introduce you to the process of learning about yourself and your options here to begin exploring the possibilities. Deciding on a major takes time and effort – sometimes the hardest part is knowing where to start. Come to this workshop to orient yourself to the process or if you’ve started, make sure you’re on the right track!

Time: 1:40 pm – 2:55 pm	Topic: Tips on Building your Professional Presence, Business Protocol, and Dressing for Success	Location: PP 418
3/28/17	Speaker: Judith Bowman, Author, Protocol Consultants International Corporate Executive Director/ Founder of the National Civility Foundation
Description: Judith Bowman, Author and international authority in the field of Professional Presence will share top tips in this valuable workshop that will teach you all forms of business etiquette - whether it be wardrobe, telephone, meeting, email or communication etiquette you’ll be able to apply these skills immediately. Designed for those who want to polish their skills, improve their professional image, and improve any environment thorough civility. Limited signed copies of Judith Bowman’s Book “How to Stand Apart at Work” will be available for purchase.

Time: 6:00 pm – 7:30 pm	Topic: Exploring Careers in Information Technology	Location: PP 521
3/28/17	Speaker: Tina Falconi, Information Technology Specialist, Quincy College
Description: Information Technology (IT) continues to change the way we live, play, and do business, so it should come as no surprise that IT is this year's fastest growing career field. This workshop will highlight the essential qualities for a successful career in IT and assess where your career goals and interests fit. Finally, you will be able to determine what level of education you need for the IT roles that interest you most.

QUINCY CAMPUS

CAREER

FAIR

MEET LOCAL COMPANIES

SPRING 2017

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2017 /// 11 AM - 3 PM
QUINCY CAMPUS /// 3RD FLOOR

BRING RESUMES AND DRESS FOR SUCCESS

PARTICIPATING EMPLOYER

TYPE OF INDUSTRY

Anodyne Corporation	Health Care & Medical Services
Apollo Dental Associates	Health Care - Dental
Bane Care South	Health Care
Chipotle	Hospitality - Restaurant
Comcast	Computer Science, Engineering Technology
Granite City Electric	Business - Electrical Supply
Hampton Inn - Boston, Natick	Hospitality
High Point Treatment Center	Non-Profit - Human Services
Home Helpers & Direct Link	Healthcare / Assisted Living
Housing Management Resources	Business - Property Management Company
IKEA	Retail
Judge Rotenberg Center	Behavioral Health - Educational Center
Lady Corporate Inc.	Business Management
Marriott International	Hospitality - Business Management
MA Commission Against Discrimination (MCAD)	Government
Massachusetts General Hospital (MGH)	Health Care
Morgan Stanley	Financial Services
NVNA Works & Hospice	Healthcare / Private Homecare for the elderly
PharMerica	Pharmacy management service for skilled nursing facilities (SNF)
Rockland Federal Credit union	Financial / Banking
ScribeAmerica	Medical Scribing
Securitas Security Services USA, Inc	Security / Public Safety
South Shore Career Centers	Employment Center
South Shore Health Systems - SS Hospital	Health Care
South Shore Mental Health	Human Services / Health Care
State Street	Financial Services
Sunrise Systems	Manufacturing
Triangle	Human Services - Disability Services
VCA South Shore Animal Hospital	Healthcare - Animal
Walgreens	Retail

THE COLLEGE OF THE SOUTH SHORE™

QUINCY COLLEGE
PLYMOUTH, QUINCY & ONLINE

WEDNESDAY March 29, 2017

Time: 4:30 pm – 5:45 pm	Topic: Linked-In Profiles for Professionals and Students	Location: PP 521
3/29/17	Speaker: Katy Spencer Johnson, Marketing & Communications Agent, Quincy College
Description: Learn how to use the broad reach of LinkedIn to effectively network for jobs, internships, or other career related information and leads connecting with peers, employers, and industry contacts. In this student focused session, we'll explore how to translate your resume to a Linked-In profile, how to build a profile that will get you recognized, what makes a successful and unsuccessful profile, and how to network, connect, and highlight your expertise on the social media network. Student will be given the opportunity to develop a LinkedIn profile. Bring your resume in digital form and we'll build your Linked-In Profile together during the session. We'll even take your Linked-In profile photo at the event so dress up and get ready to smile!

THURSDAY – March 30

Time: 8:00 am – 9:15 am	Topic: Career Readiness and Exploring Non-Nursing, Medical Administration, and Clinical Careers	Location: PP 9
3/30/17	Speaker: Karen Salhaney Smizer, Director of Career Services, Quincy College Sharon King, Instructor of Medical Laboratory Technology, Quincy College
Description: Interested in exploring a career as a health professional – where you can combine your interest in helping others with your technical skills? Come to this workshop where you will learn about non-nursing, medical administration, and clinical careers.

Time: 9:30 am – 10:30 am	Topic: Resume Review	Location: PP 435
3/30/17	Speaker: Karen Salhaney Smizer, Director of Career Services, Quincy College
Description: The QC Career Center will be hosting a Review your Resume Table – Have your resume reviewed or just stop by to make an appointment for a future one-on-one meeting. Avoid common mistakes on a resume that can affect how an employer looks at you.

Time: 10:50 am – 11:20 am	Topic: Career & Internships Opportunities in Victimology	Location: PP 309
3/30/17	Speaker: Monsi Quinones, Massachusetts Department of Correction Jennifer Daukas Pompeo, Police Officer, Town of Weymouth
Description: Open to students that major in Criminal Justice, Finance, Psychology, Sociology, Legal and other appropriate areas of student, careers in victimology span multiple fields including law enforcement, corrections, social services, child protection services and research analysis. Don't miss this opportunity to see how you can apply your skills, passion and education to a rewarding career through experiential learning!

MONDAY – April 3, 2017

Time: 9:00am	Topic: Tips on Building Your Professional Presence, Business Protocol, and Dressing for Success	Location: 227B
April 3, 2017	Speaker: Judith Bowman, Author, Protocol Consultants International Corporate Executive Director/ Founder of the National Civility Foundation
Description: Judith Bowman, Author and international authority in the field of Professional Presence will share top tips in this valuable workshop that will teach you all forms of business etiquette - whether it be wardrobe, telephone, meeting, email or communication etiquette you'll be able to apply these skills immediately. Designed for those who want to polish their skills, improve their professional image, and improve any environment thorough civility. Limited signed copies of Judith Bowman's Book How to Stand Apart at Work will be available for purchase.

Time: 9am -12pm & 6:00pm-8:00pm	Topic: Where Will You Go with Your Nursing Degree?	Location: 104F
April 3, 2017	Speaker: Barbara Weakland, MEd., BS, RN. Director of Care Coordination, NAFI Corp.
Description: Explore what it's like to work in the field of Nursing. Barbara Weakland, Director of Care Coordination for NAFI will share her experiences as an RN in Psychiatric Emergency Service, a faculty member, school nurse, and employee of Harvard Pilgrim Health Care, Blue Cross/Blue Shield, and Beacon Hospice. Explore the variety of career options available as a Nursing Program graduate. Barbara will also highlight what she looks for in a Health Field resume. Where will you go with YOUR degree?

Time: 4:30pm – 5:00pm	Topic: Early Intervention Preschool	Location: 214B
April 3, 2017	Speaker: Sue Homan, Director, Kennedy-Donovan Center
Description: The Kennedy-Donovan Centers Early Intervention Program is comprehensive, family-centered, and community based. They provide services to young children who have or are at risk for developmental delays. Attend this session to explore early intervention for young children with development delays. Topics to include: parent education, physical, speech language, and occupational therapies, service coordination, nutrition, socialization, and transition to school planning.

Time: 5pm – 5:45pm	Topic: Preschool Teaching at Head Start	Location: 214B
April 3, 2017	Speaker: Jennifer Swinhart, Director, South Shore Community Action Council
Description: Interested in Early Childhood Education? Explore the opportunities in a career focused on preschool teaching, working for a head start programs, and using your early childhood education degree. Jennifer Swinhart, Director of South Shore Community Action Council will speak about working with children 3 months to 5 years and the value of preschool teaching encourages self-confidence, school readiness, independence and intellectual curiosity. Come learn about the opportunities with Head Start.

Time: 6pm – 6:45pm	Topic: Designing Preschool Teaching Curriculum	Location: Room 214 B
April 3, 2017	Speaker: Jennifer Swinhart, Director, South Shore Community Action Council
Description: Explore how to design a preschool teaching curriculum that promotes self-confidence, school readiness, independence and intellectual curiosity. South Shore Early Education Preschool Curriculum is presented by Jennifer Swinhart, Director, of South Shore Community Action Council.

TUESDAY – April 4, 2017

Time: 8:30am-10:30am	Topic: Victimology, Roles, and Issues in a Non-Traditional by Gender Career	Location: 227C
April 4, 2017	Speaker: Jennifer Daukas Pompeo, Weymouth Police
Description: Meet a female police officer who is the Senior Citizen liaison, works with Domestic Violence Victims, does substance abuse education and works closely with the health and fire departments regarding any hoarding or housing issues. Jen Pompeo has been in Law Enforcement for 10 years. Explore the elements of working in a career that is not traditional for your gender.

Time: 10:30am-11:45am	Topic: Leverage Your DREAM Business	Location: 231
April 4, 2017	Speaker: Mariana Costa, Dream Homes & Estate, CEO
Description: “There is a known correlation between the mind, body, soul, and spirit. With mind comes the ability to create, with body comes the gift to implement, with soul comes the ability to serve what the spirit can’t help but to dream on forward.” Meet Mariana Costa CEO of Dream Homes & Estate, Realtor, Team Leader, Author, and Public Speaker. Explore the facets of entrepreneurship and a realty career. Explore how to run a successful real estate business.

Time: 12:00pm-1:15pm	Topic: The Recruiter’s Eye: An Inside Look On Recruiting and Resume Writing the Harvard Way	Location: 220B
April 4, 2017	Speaker: Ahfeeyah Thomas, Founder and CEO, Lady Corporate Inc.
Description: Ahfeeyah Thomas, Motivational Speaker and Success Coach, is a millennial with a vision. With over 8 years of combined experience as a Career and Business Coach she has changed the lives of women students and executives across the New England area. Ahfeeyah is a serial entrepreneur and advocate for defined and personalized success for each and every professional. Having gained experience working within the corporate arena, serving as Human Resources and Recruitment Professional as well as the Workforce Development Coordinator and Instructor at the Urban League. Ahfeeyah has taken her experience, passion and knowledge to help her clients achieve career contentment and boldness in business. Afeeyah now serves as the CEO, Founder and Creative Director of Lady Corporate, a luxury lifestyle corporate community that engages the career woman on all levels of her career and in all aspects of her life while also tackling the challenges that affect women such as the gender wage gap and equal growth opportunities for women within the corporate arena.

Time: 6:00pm-8:00pm	Topic: Job Hunting? Make the Best Impression at Your Interview	Location: Library, Plymouth Campus of Quincy College
April 4, 2017	Speaker: Kimberly Richards, Manager, Men’s Wearhouse
Description: Heidrea for Heroes and The Men’s Wearhouse are the sponsors for this Interviewing/Etiquette workshop. Bring your resume and apply for a “free suit.” Free Suits for Veterans! Meet Ally Rodriguez from the Plymouth Career Center. Pizza and refreshment; Event is only for Quincy College veterans students and dependents.

WEDNESDAY – April 5, 2017

Time: 10:30 AM-12:00 PM	Topic: So You Want To Own A Business!	Location: 231
April 5, 2017	Speaker: Bert Welling, SCORE
Description: Senior Core of Retired Executives (SCORE) has a “wealth” of business experience to share with you. Benefit from expert business advice from an executive dedicated to helping small business get off the ground.

THURSDAY – April 6, 2017

Time: 8:30am-12:30pm	Topic: Resume Writing/Interviewing Techniques	Location: 228J
April 6, 2017	Speaker: Georgia Clancy, Career Counselor, Quincy College at Plymouth
Description	How do you write that powerful and targeted resume? How can I answer the interviewers’ questions that will give me a substantial advantage over candidates who give more general answers? Visit Plymouth’s Career Counselor and explore resume and writing techniques that will help you land an interview and jump start your career.

NOTES