Quincy College to Host 'Meet the Author Night' at Thomas Crane Public Library Featuring Stephen Kurkjian, Author of Master Thieves and Founding Reporter for Spotlight Team

SOCIAL MEDIA RELEASE (140 Characters): @QuincyCollege Meet Author event to be held @ThomasCranePL 4.11 feat. @kurkjian, Master Thieves Author & Founding Reporter #SpotlightMovie

Quincy, MA (3/28/2016) - Quincy College Quincy Campus to host "Meet the Author Night" event at Thomas Crane Public Library (40 Washington St, Quincy, MA 02169). Stephen Kurkjian, author of Master Thieves: The Boston Gangsters Who Pulled off the World's Greatest Art Heist will speak to on Monday, April 11th from 6:30pm to 9:30pm. This event is free and open to the public.

It is a case defined by superlatives - the largest art theft in history, carrying the world's largest reward offer, longer on the FBI's list of biggest unsolved art crimes than any other save one. Two men disguised as Boston Police officers trick their way into the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum after midnight, tie up the two night watchmen and make off with an estimated half billion dollars worth of artwork including three works by Rembrandt and a Vermeer masterpiece. Now 25 years after the theft, Stephen Kurkjian who was the principal reporter on the case for The Boston Globe for years, has written a gripping account of the still-unsolved heist of a quarter century ago in Master Thieves.

A Boston native, Stephen A. Kurkjian spent 37 years as an editor and reporter for The Boston Globe before retiring in 2007. During his career, he shared in three Pulitzer Prizes and won more than 20 regional and other national awards. Globe columnist Brian McGrory once called him the "most feared and respected" reporter in New England.

Kurkjian was a founding member of The Globe's investigative Spotlight Team, and its editor for 1979-1986. In 1986, he was named chief of The Globe's Washington Bureau and for six years oversaw the work of the paper's 10 reporters in Washington. In addition, while at the bureau he covered the Supreme Court, the Justice Department and the Bush White House during the first war in Iraq.

Quincy College's "Meet the Author Night" has brought notable authors to Quincy each Fall and Spring and have included such talent as Rick Beyer, author of The Greatest Stories Never Told series, Don Hussey, author of Ticket to Ride, Stephen Puleo, author of Due to Enemy

Action, and Casey Sherman, Author of Boston Strong. On March 10th, Quincy College Plymouth hosted Dr. Peter Grinspoon who spoke about his recently released title, Free Refills.

A question and answer session will follow the Quincy College Meet the Author reading. Reservations are recommended but not required; to reserve your seat for the Quincy College Meet the Author event, visit: <http://masterthievesqcauthornight.eventbrite.com>.
