

Privacy Policy

Overview

Quincy College (QC) has created this privacy policy to address the collection, use and distribution of personal information both in person and through the use of the MY QC portal and www.QuincyCollege.edu website. All information gathered is supplied through applications, inquiry, forms and requests. Users should not supply information if they do not wish that data to be collected and stored.

Data Collection and Use

When visiting the college websites the following information will be recorded: Where the user is linking from, the date of the page view, unique college pages visited, the device's IP address and the type of computing device.

This data is used for statistical purposes to assess traffic for the websites, performance review and optimization. Web Browser Cookies may also be utilized for marketing and future visits to the college webpages.

Disclosure

Any information gathered by Quincy College is not disclosed to any third party unless they are a service provider contracted by the college and using the data for college related business. Additionally, the college may disclose data at the request of federal, state and local law enforcement entities when such circumstances exist to comply with a legal request for information.

Any links found on Quincy College websites that connect to outside information or external websites are subject to the policies of those sites and beyond the scope of this policy. Quincy College is not responsible for the content of any non-college websites that may have links on college webpages.

This policy does not cover privacy for the use of College owned equipment or other information resources. Use of College equipment and other information resources are covered in the Information Technology policies and procedures.
